

USAID | HONDURAS

FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Vacancy Announcement No. ST-FSN-22-13

OPEN TO:	All interested candidates who have the required work and/or residency permit
FULL LEVEL OF PERFORMANCE:	FSN PSC – 11
LOCATION OF POSITION:	Program Office (PO), Tegucigalpa, Honduras
POSITION TITLE:	A.I.D. Development Program Specialist (CARSI Coordination)
OPENING DATE:	June 7, 2013
CLOSING DATE:	June 21, 2013
WORK HOURS:	Monday through Friday (40 hours per week)
SALARY:	Compensation will be in accordance with the Local Compensation Plan (LCP). In addition to a generous benefits package, monetary compensation ranges from L. 597,060.00 to L. 1,014,996.00 per year.

BASIC FUNCTION:

The Development Program Specialist manages the Mission's coordination of the Central America Regional Security Initiative (CARSI) with Mission technical and support offices, other US agencies, Government of Honduras ministries, and other public and private sector partners. (S)he engages host country counterparts, implementing partners, other donors, and other public and private sector partners in high-level discussions on issues related to USAID goals in Honduras. (S)he drafts and participates in the negotiation of bilateral obligation and other implementation documents with Government of Honduras (GOH) officials in the Ministry of Finance. The Development Program Specialist also drafts or reviews and edits key Spanish and English language materials on USAID CARSI programs, success stories, program descriptions for the USAID Spanish and English language webpage, and briefing and reporting documents for senior USAID and US Government officials. Within the Program Office (PO), the incumbent assists the Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Specialist to analyze, assess, and communicate development work in the CARSI sector.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

This job description summarizes the core responsibilities assigned to the position; however, it in no way states or implies that these are the only duties to be performed by incumbent. Incumbent will be required to perform other duties as assigned by the agency.

1. Activity Planning, Implementation, and Monitoring (85%)

- Drafts and participates in the negotiation of bilateral Agreements and amendments with Government of Honduras (GOH) officials in the Ministry of Finance. Monitors and advises USAID on GOH compliance with bilateral conditions precedent and covenants.
- Drafts official implementation documentation (e.g., Implementation Letters). Participates in making substantive decisions involving implementation matters (e.g., revising results and indicator targets, benchmarks; selecting technical assistance contractors; terminating/canceling activities).
- Leads the development of planning documentation for bilateral and regional activities, such as Project Appraisal Documents and other project design documents, assuring compliance with Automated Directives System (ADS) requirements.
- Participates in the conceptual design of new activities (e.g., analyzing and clarifying the development problem; defining the criteria by which the success or failure of planned activities will be measured).

- Coordinates, provides guidance, and participates in the development of the two annual Portfolio Reviews and identification of major issues for Mission review. Performs routine formal presentations in different subjects, such as Performance Monitoring Plan (PMP) and use of indicators under USAID's Results approach (vis-à-vis use of logframes), and on project design and strategic development concept and application to CARSI teams, counterparts and other donors, and to Mission staff.
- Assists Mission technical teams with the development of narratives and other inputs for the Operational Plan, Integrated Country Strategy, Country Development Cooperation Strategy, Performance Plan and Report, Congressional Budget Justification, and Congressional Notifications.
- Assists the Mission Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist in the implementation of current USAID monitoring and evaluation trends relevant to the work of the Central America Regional Security Initiative (CARSI) portfolio within the Honduran context.
- In conjunction with the Monitoring and Evaluation Specialist, assists the CARSI team in complying with USAID monitoring and evaluation policies by providing guidance and reviewing performance management plans and evaluations.
- Monitors and ensures timely closure of outstanding audit recommendations to reduce the areas of vulnerability in the correct use of USAID resources.
- Facilitates procurement actions by reviewing and clearing procurement requests for clarity and consistency with U.S. Government (USG) bilateral agreements, laws and regulations.

2. Language Communications Support (Mission-wide) (15%)

- Supports Mission technical offices, Program Office (PO) Public Relations staff, and the Front Office by drafting or reviewing and editing key Spanish and English language materials on USAID CARSI programs, success stories, program descriptions for the USAID Spanish and English language webpage, and briefing documents for senior USAID and USG officials.
- Provides support to the PO Public Relations staff for the implementation of the Mission's communications strategy and for the development of new Mission outreach activities.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

All applicants must address each selection criterion detailed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item.

EDUCATION: Possession of a bachelor's degree is required in International Development, Public Administration, Policy Analysis, Political Science, International Relations, Finance or in a field related to development assistance in the areas of democracy, law, citizen security, or youth development is required. A Master's degree is preferred.

Experience in developing monitoring plans and evaluation of scopes of work is also required.

LANGUAGE: Level IV (fluency) in English and Spanish is required. This will be tested. At this level, the incumbent must have a high degree of proficiency in both the written and spoken language, including the ability to translate. On occasion, the job holder may need to act as an interpreter. Written English skills are particularly important. Must be able to clearly express ideas and concepts accurately both verbally and in writing.

KNOWLEDGE: Detailed knowledge related to management of international development programs or projects in the areas of citizen security, rule of law, or a related field is required. Advanced knowledge of the institutional environments, and/or related public policy associated with development in Honduras is required. Must possess broad understanding of statistics, monitoring and evaluation, and of Microsoft Office, with special emphasis on Excel expertise.

SKILLS ANDABILITIES:

Must possess good team-work and interpersonal skills and ability to interact effectively with host-country counterparts. Must have the ability to write clearly and concisely, in English and Spanish, including ability to draft sections of USAID implementation documents, other correspondence with mid-and-high-level USG and Government of Honduras (GOH) officials, and relevant sections of USAID's Operational Plan, Performance Plan and Report, Congressional Budget Justification, and Congressional Notifications. Skills in preparing and presenting oral and written reports and ability to influence opinions of others are required. Computer skills required: Microsoft Word, Excel, Power Point, Outlook, and web-based applications, with good working knowledge of data base front-end programs. It is also required to have excellent representational skills and managerial capabilities to flexibly perform in a variety of environments up to and including the GOH ministerial level, as well as with high level USG and VIP visitors.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION CRITERIA:

1. The Contracting Officer will consider nepotism/conflict of interest, budget and residency status in determining successful candidacy.
2. Current Ordinarily Resident employees (OR) must have worked in their present position for at least one year in order to be eligible for consideration.
3. Current Ordinarily Resident employees identified as needing improvement in their interim report during the mid-cycle review or with an Overall Summary Rating of Needs Improvement or Unsatisfactory on their most recent Work Plan and Performance Evaluation Report are not eligible to apply.
4. All candidates for employment with the US Mission must pass a background/security investigation and a medical certification. Any employment offer with the US Mission is contingent upon a candidate's ability to secure the necessary certifications.
5. All Ordinarily Resident applicants must be a naturalized citizen of the host country or have the required work and/or residency permits to be eligible for consideration.
